

Alexander T. Tracy Joins Perella Weinberg Partners As Managing Director

July 19, 2016

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Perella Weinberg Partners today announced that Alex Tracy has joined the Firm as a Managing Director in its Advisory business. Based in New York, Mr. Tracy will be a member of the Firm's restructuring practice.

Mr. Tracy has 17 years of investment banking experience. He was most recently a Managing Director at Miller Buckfire & Co., where he focused on originating, structuring, negotiating and executing a wide range of complex transactions, including out-of-court and chapter 11 restructurings, exchange and tender offers, mergers and acquisitions, and financings. Prior to that, he worked at Chanin Capital Partners, a specialty investment bank. Mr. Tracy began his career at Prudential Securities Incorporated.

Bruce Mendelsohn, Partner and Head of Restructuring at Perella Weinberg Partners, said, "We are thrilled to welcome Alex to our team. With his addition, we now have more than 25 restructuring professionals in New York and London focused on meeting the increased demand from clients for restructuring related advice."

Alex Tracy stated, "I am excited to join Perella Weinberg Partners and look forward to working with Bruce, Kevin Cofsky and the entire restructuring team to help our clients meet their strategic needs."
