Please reconcile for us your attribution methodology with these two items. In this regard, provide us an explanation of:

How an attribution methodology that is disproportionate to the respective ownership interests is appropriate absent a contractual arrangement that affects distributions of income or loss; and

2. Please explain to us why there is no apparent pro forma statement of financial condition impact for pro forma adjustments (cc) and (hh). Otherwise, tell us how these adjustments are reflected on your pro forma statement of financial condition and revise your disclosure to clarify. In addition, in your response tell us why your pro forma net loss attributable to Perella Weinberg Partners assuming no redemptions of $34.3 million in 2020 is inconsistent with the $27.1 million accumulated deficit on your pro forma statement of financial condition and reconcile for us the related $108.6 million pro forma loss attributable to noncontrolling interest and the $122.4 million noncontrolling interest on your pro forma statement of financial condition.
